CYCLING, HIKING AND CULTURE AROUND RAČICE

Mount Říp

If you stay at the rowing canal in Račice, you have an excellent opportunity to enjoy not only sporting experiences but also beautiful nature and historical sites in the surrounding area. Račice is an ideal starting point for cycling, walking, and cultural activities. Below you will find several recommendations on how to make your free time more enjoyable.

Račice and its surroundings offer excellent conditions for cycling, with popular routes leading to picturesque places worth visiting.

Roudnice nad Labem (approx. 12 km)
The town square offers pleasant cafés and pastry shops worth visiting.

Mount Říp (approx. 15 km)
Several hiking trails lead to the top, accessible even for recreational cyclists. From the summit, you can enjoy a magnificent view of the surrounding countryside and visit the Romanesque rotunda of St. George.

Litoměřice (approx. 30 km)
The town is known for its traditional market and local wine. In summer, you can also visit the nearby Bohemian Central Highlands.

There are numerous hiking trails leading into the Central Bohemian Uplands, offering varied terrain and scenic views.

For those who prefer a quiet walk, the surroundings of Račice offer many options. A trip to the Elbe River provides natural scenery and tranquillity, and the area along the river is known for its vineyards.

If you would like to combine relaxation with culture, the region offers several notable sites:

Litoměřice

Roudnice nad Labem

Romanesque rotunda of St. George

Gallery of Modern Art in Roudnice nad Labem
A gallery with a rich collection of Czech modern art.

Libochovice Chateau (approx. 30 km)
A beautiful Renaissance chateau featuring a large park and an exhibition on the history of the Dietrichstein family.

Chateau Libochovice